

THE BEST

HIDE AND SEEK

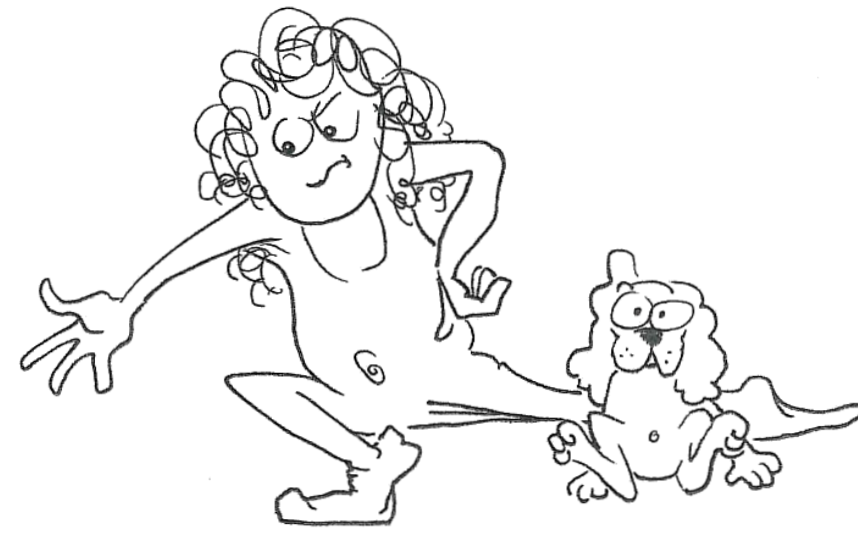

PLAYERS

BY ANNIE EVANS AND MARTIN ROBINSON

A ROOBA AND COBALT
BOOK

EVER!

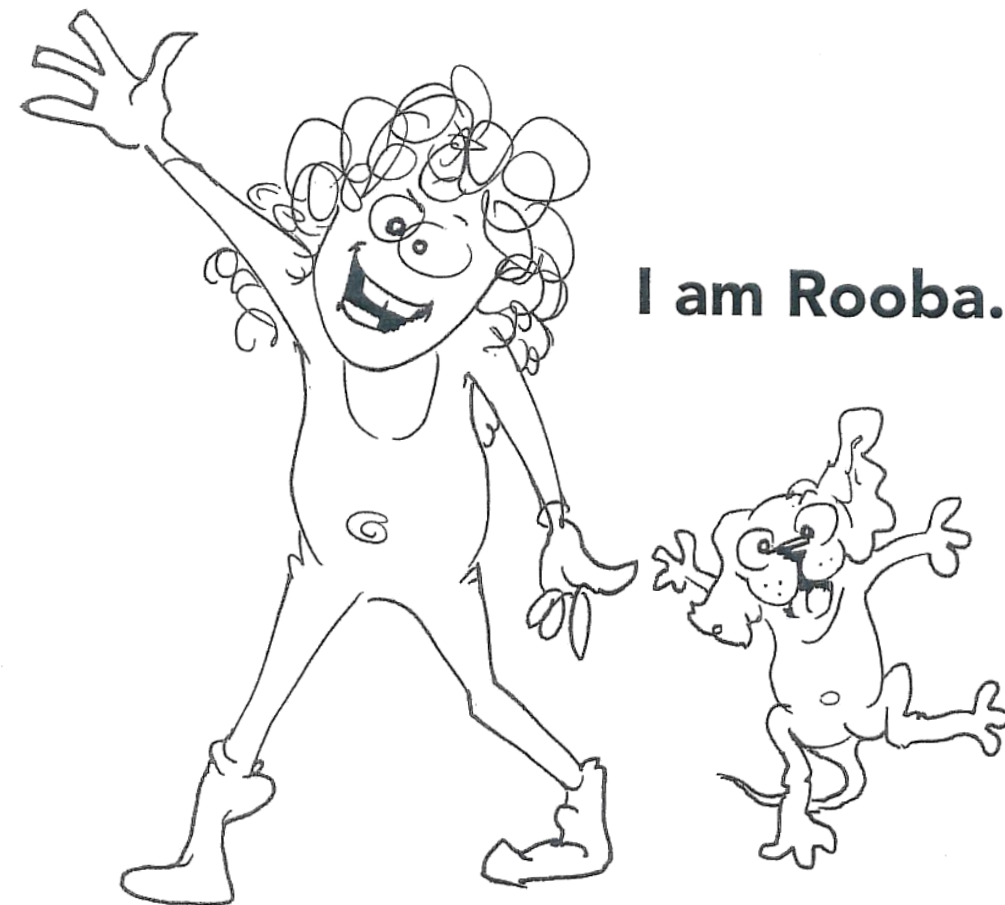

You can skip this grown-up stuff

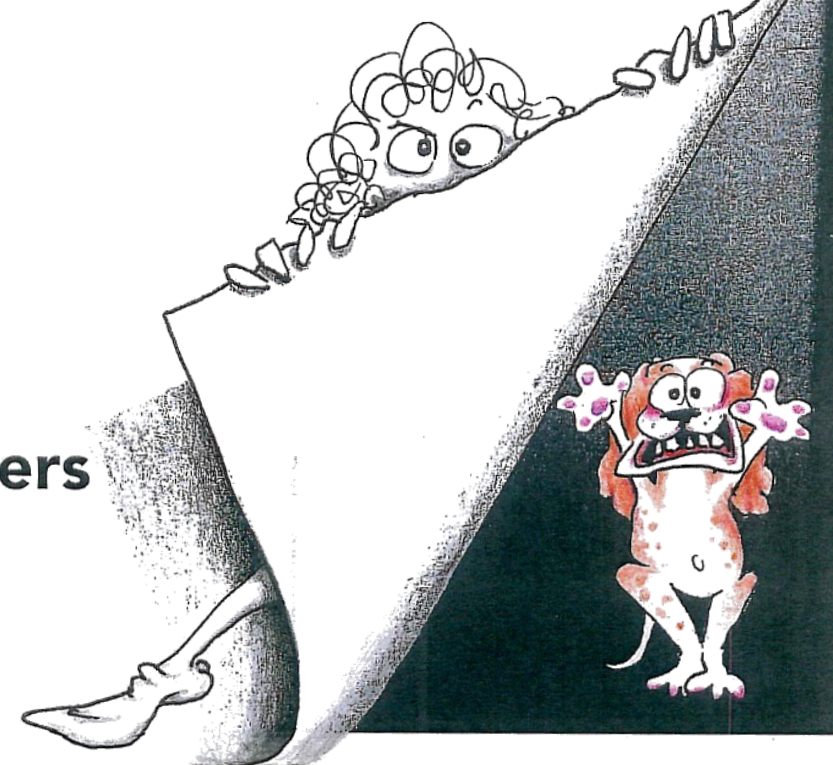

Library of Congress, 2014, blah, blah, blah
ISBNbarcodebarcodebarcode
A little flat kid and his dog
Try to hide from reader,
Have tantrum, seek redemption
and serenity.
Kid, dog, game, tantrum, redemption,
hidenseek, serenity, repeat.

I am Rooba. This is my dog Cobalt.

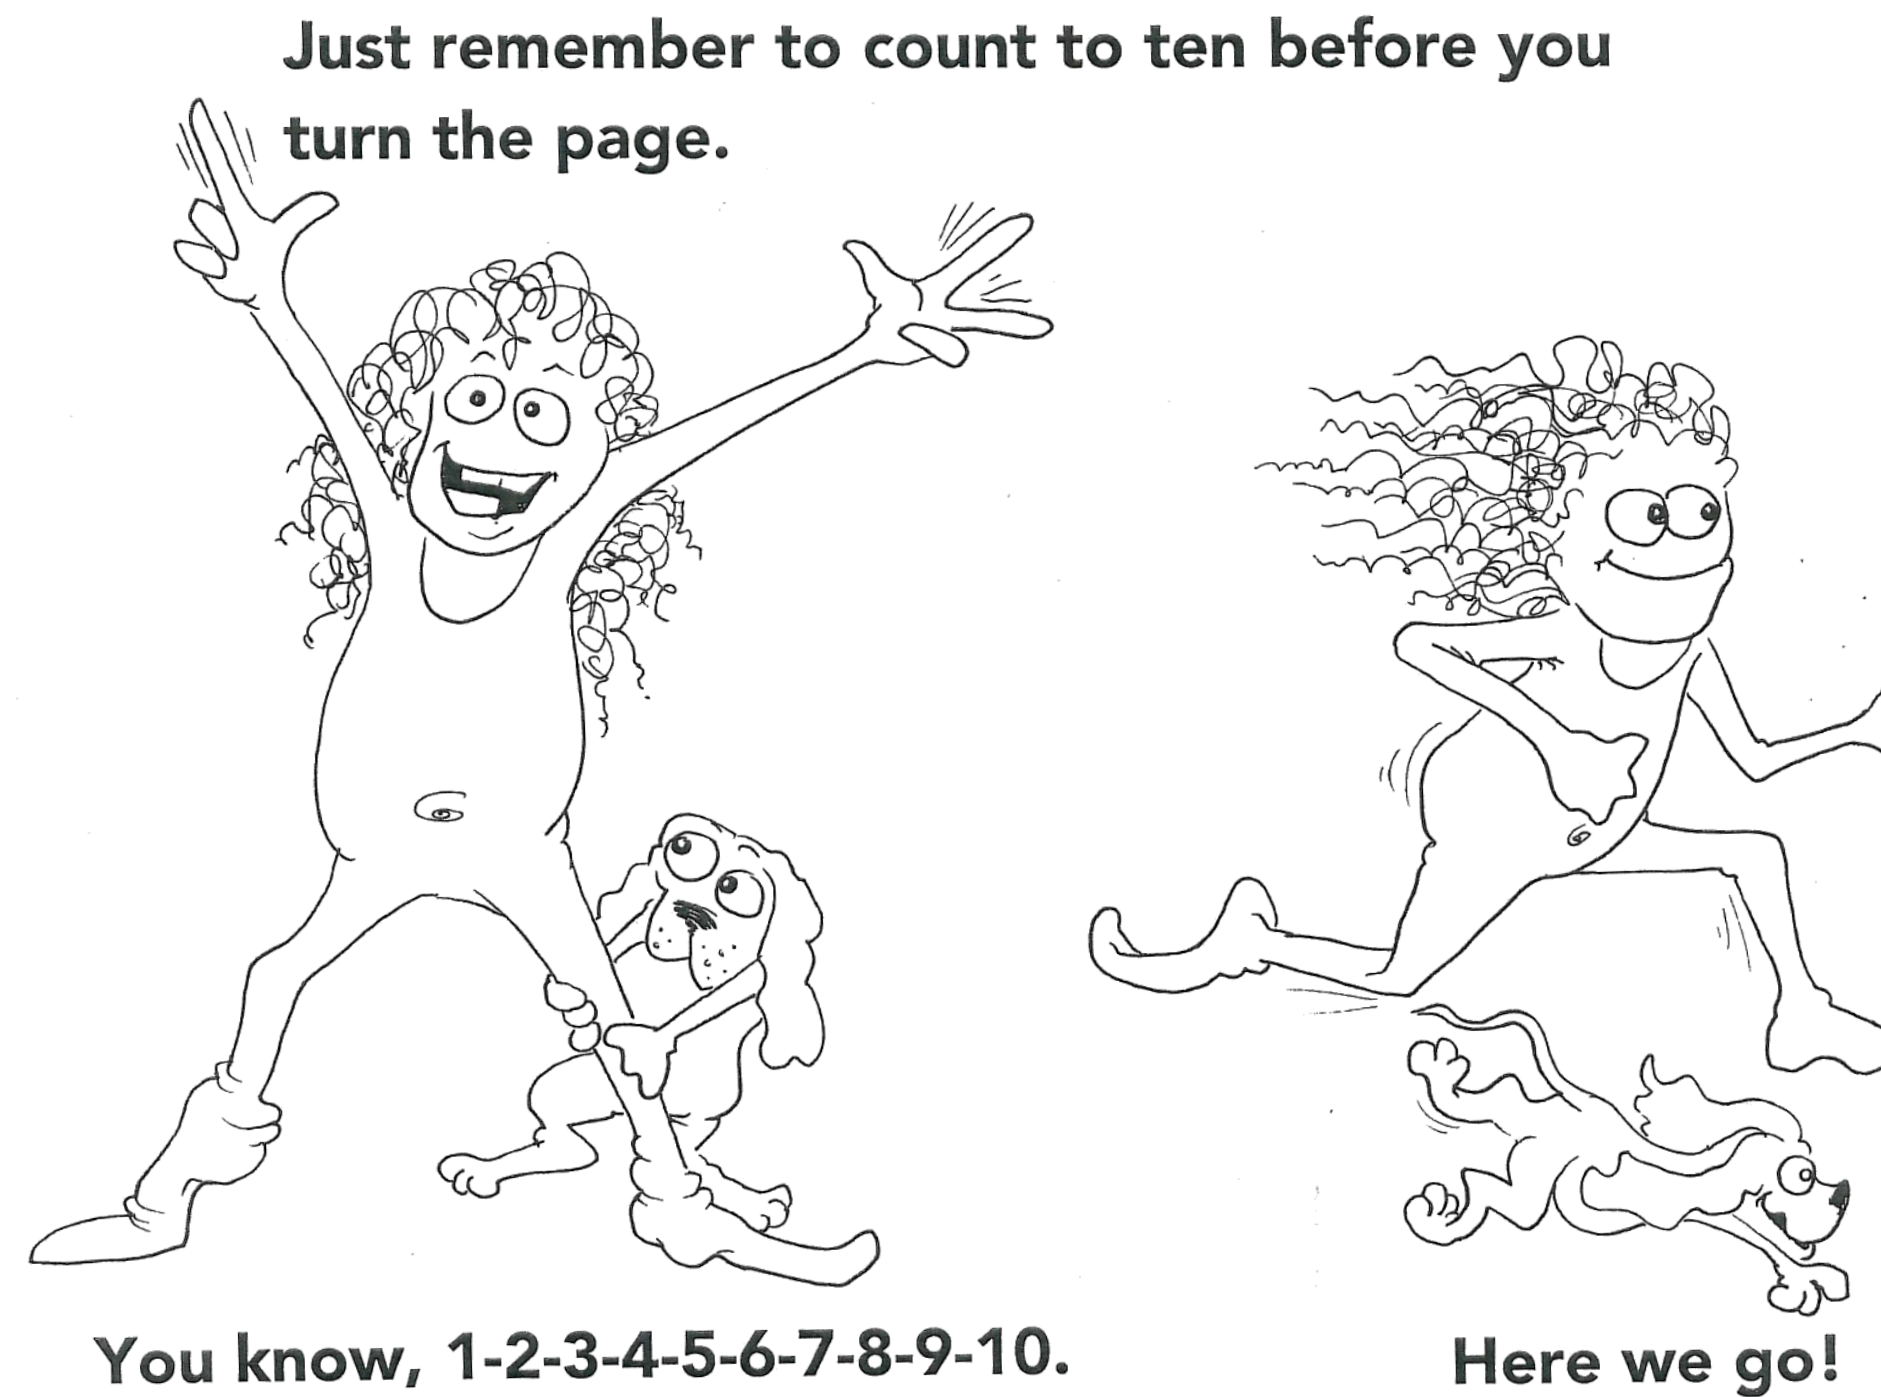

We are the best hide-n-seek players
EVER.

Even better than the very first hide-n-seek players...

...and they had to be good!

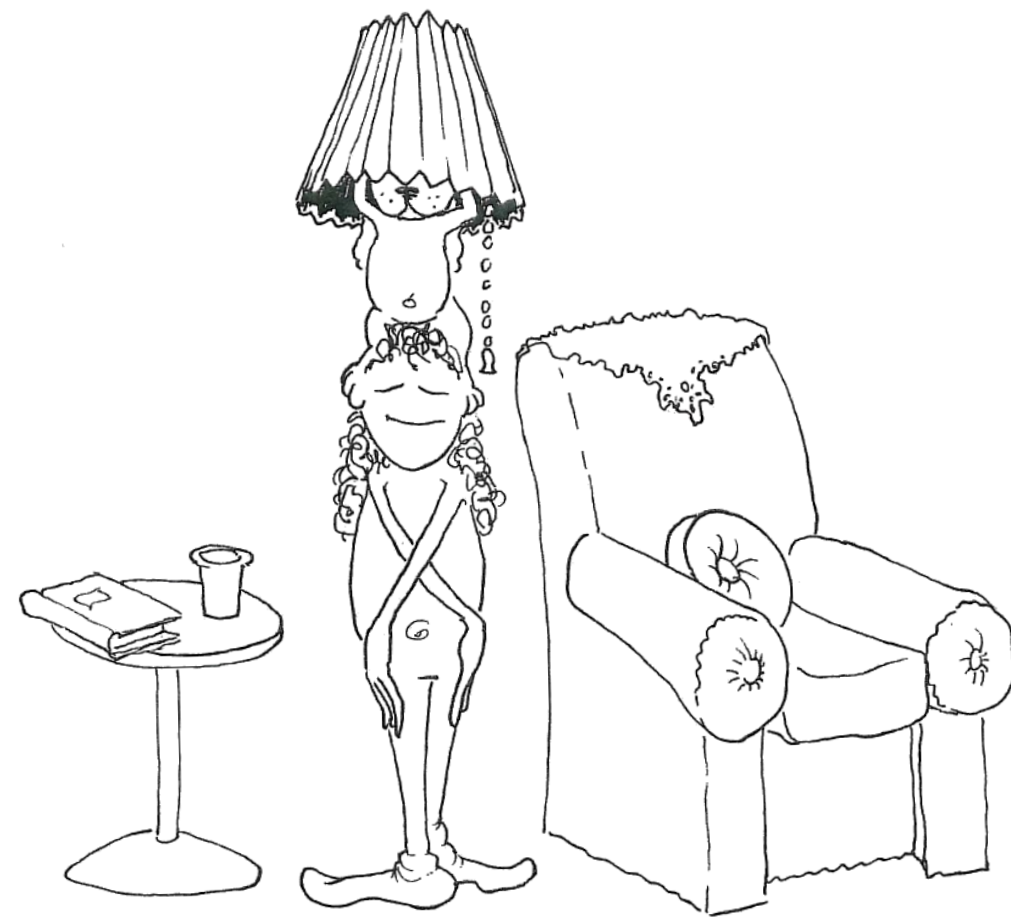

Is that you already?

Try it again. Only count to ten like this,
1-1000, 2-1000, 3-1000.

Wait for me, Cobalt.
Cobalt is a very eager player.

You found us?

Okay, that was just practice.

Start again.
And count s-l-o-w-l-y.

You found us again?

Did you peek?
We will try again
just in case you peeked.

Bet you cannot find us now.

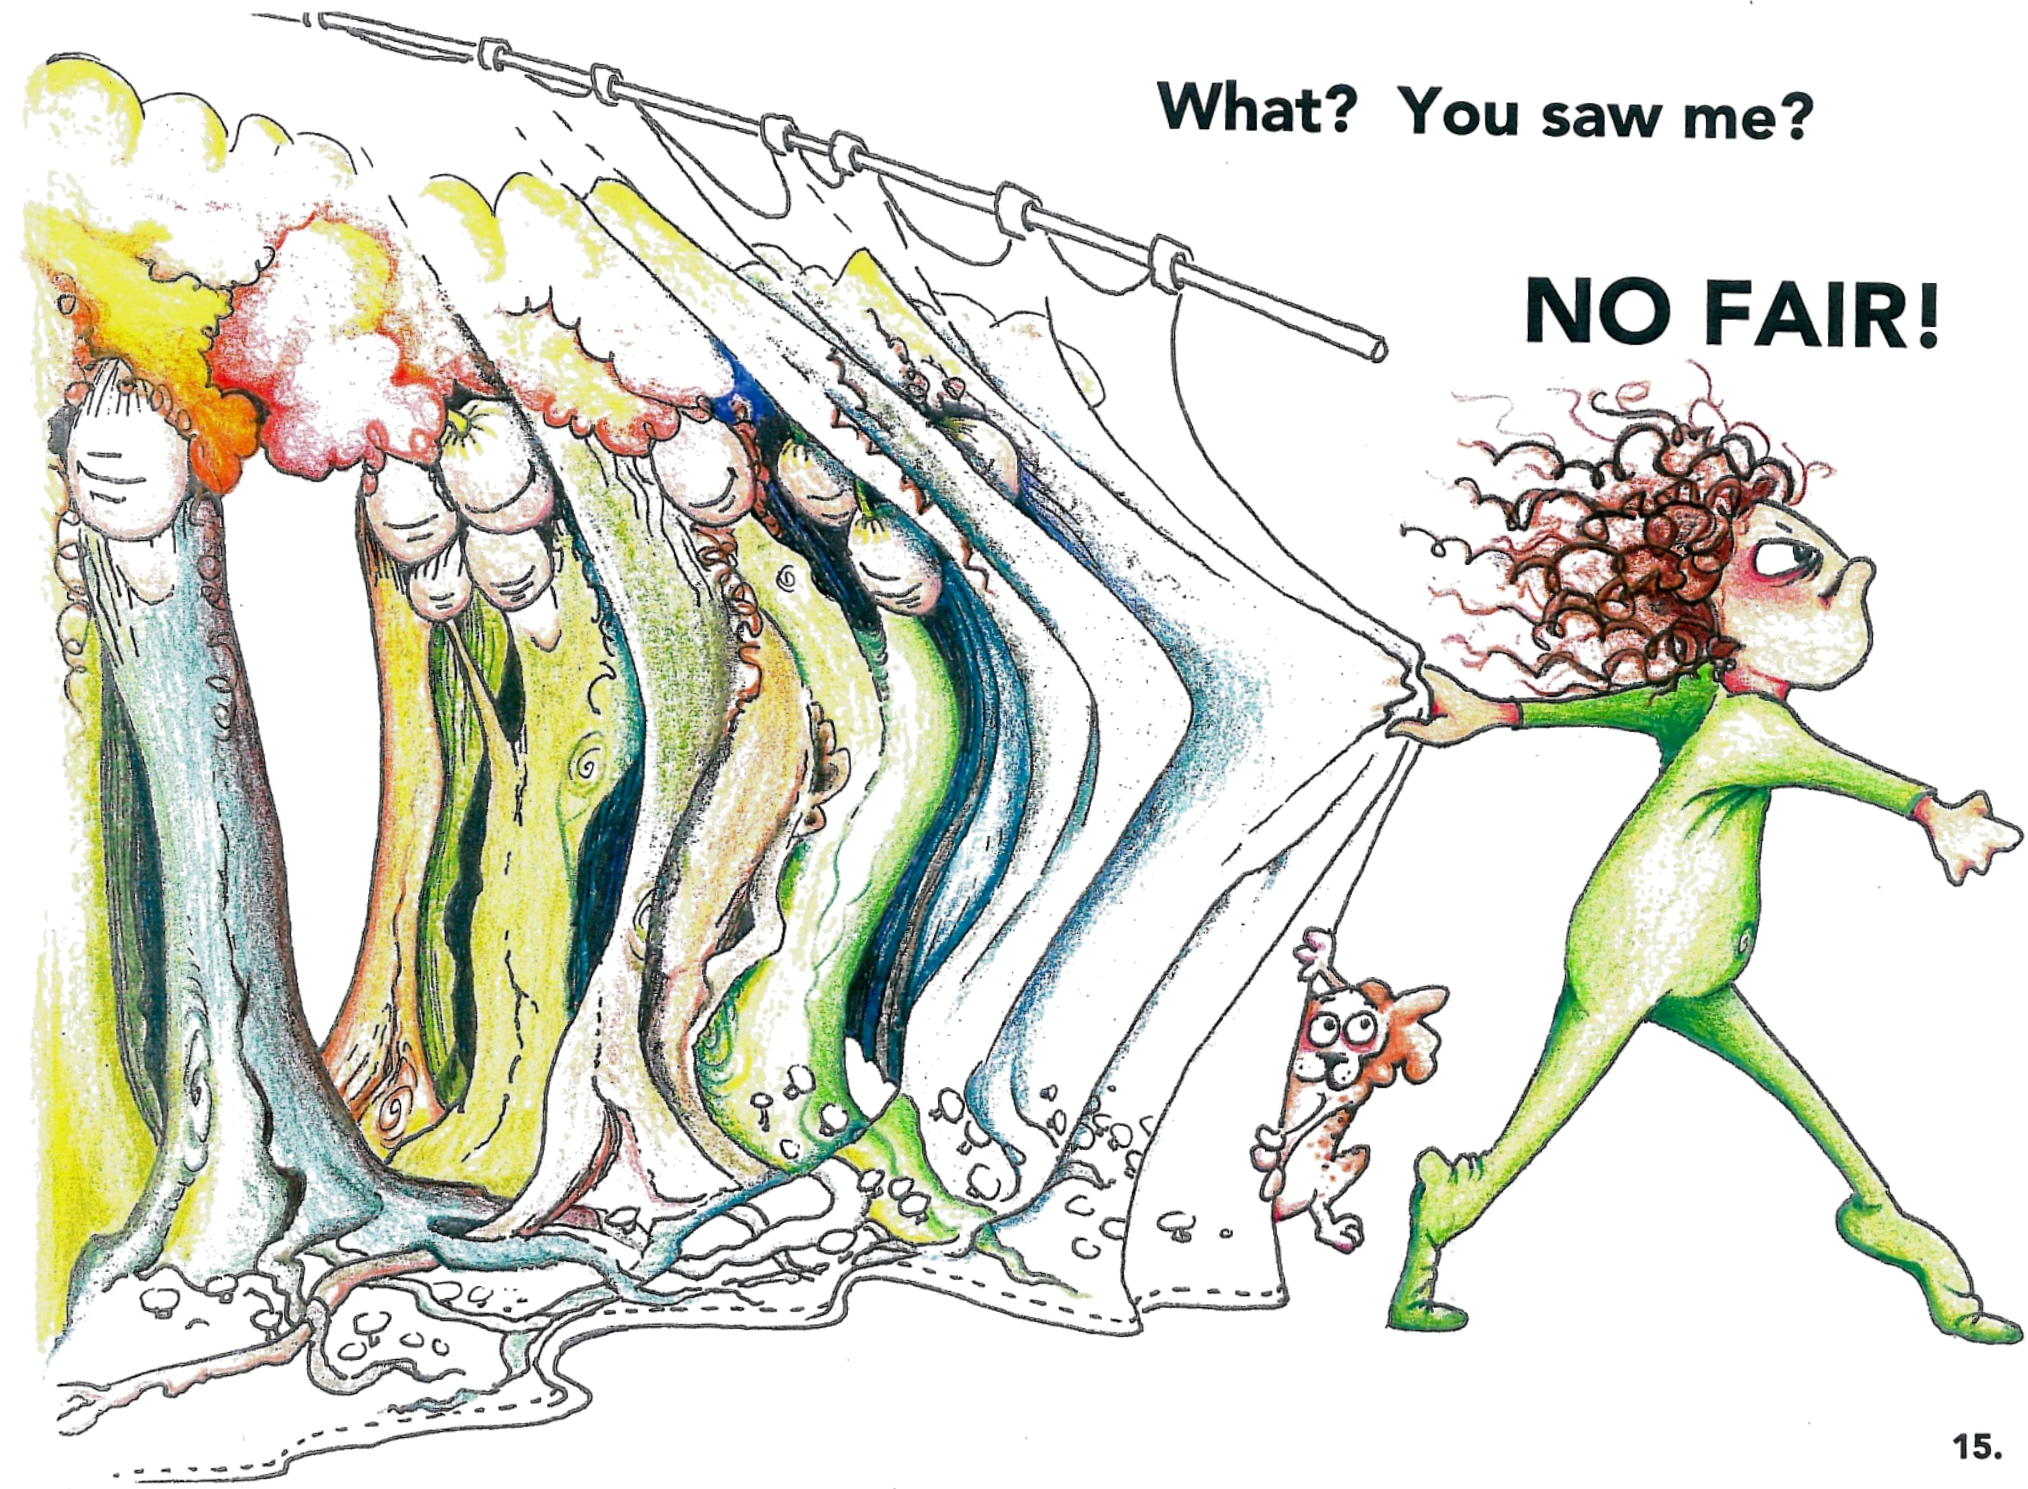

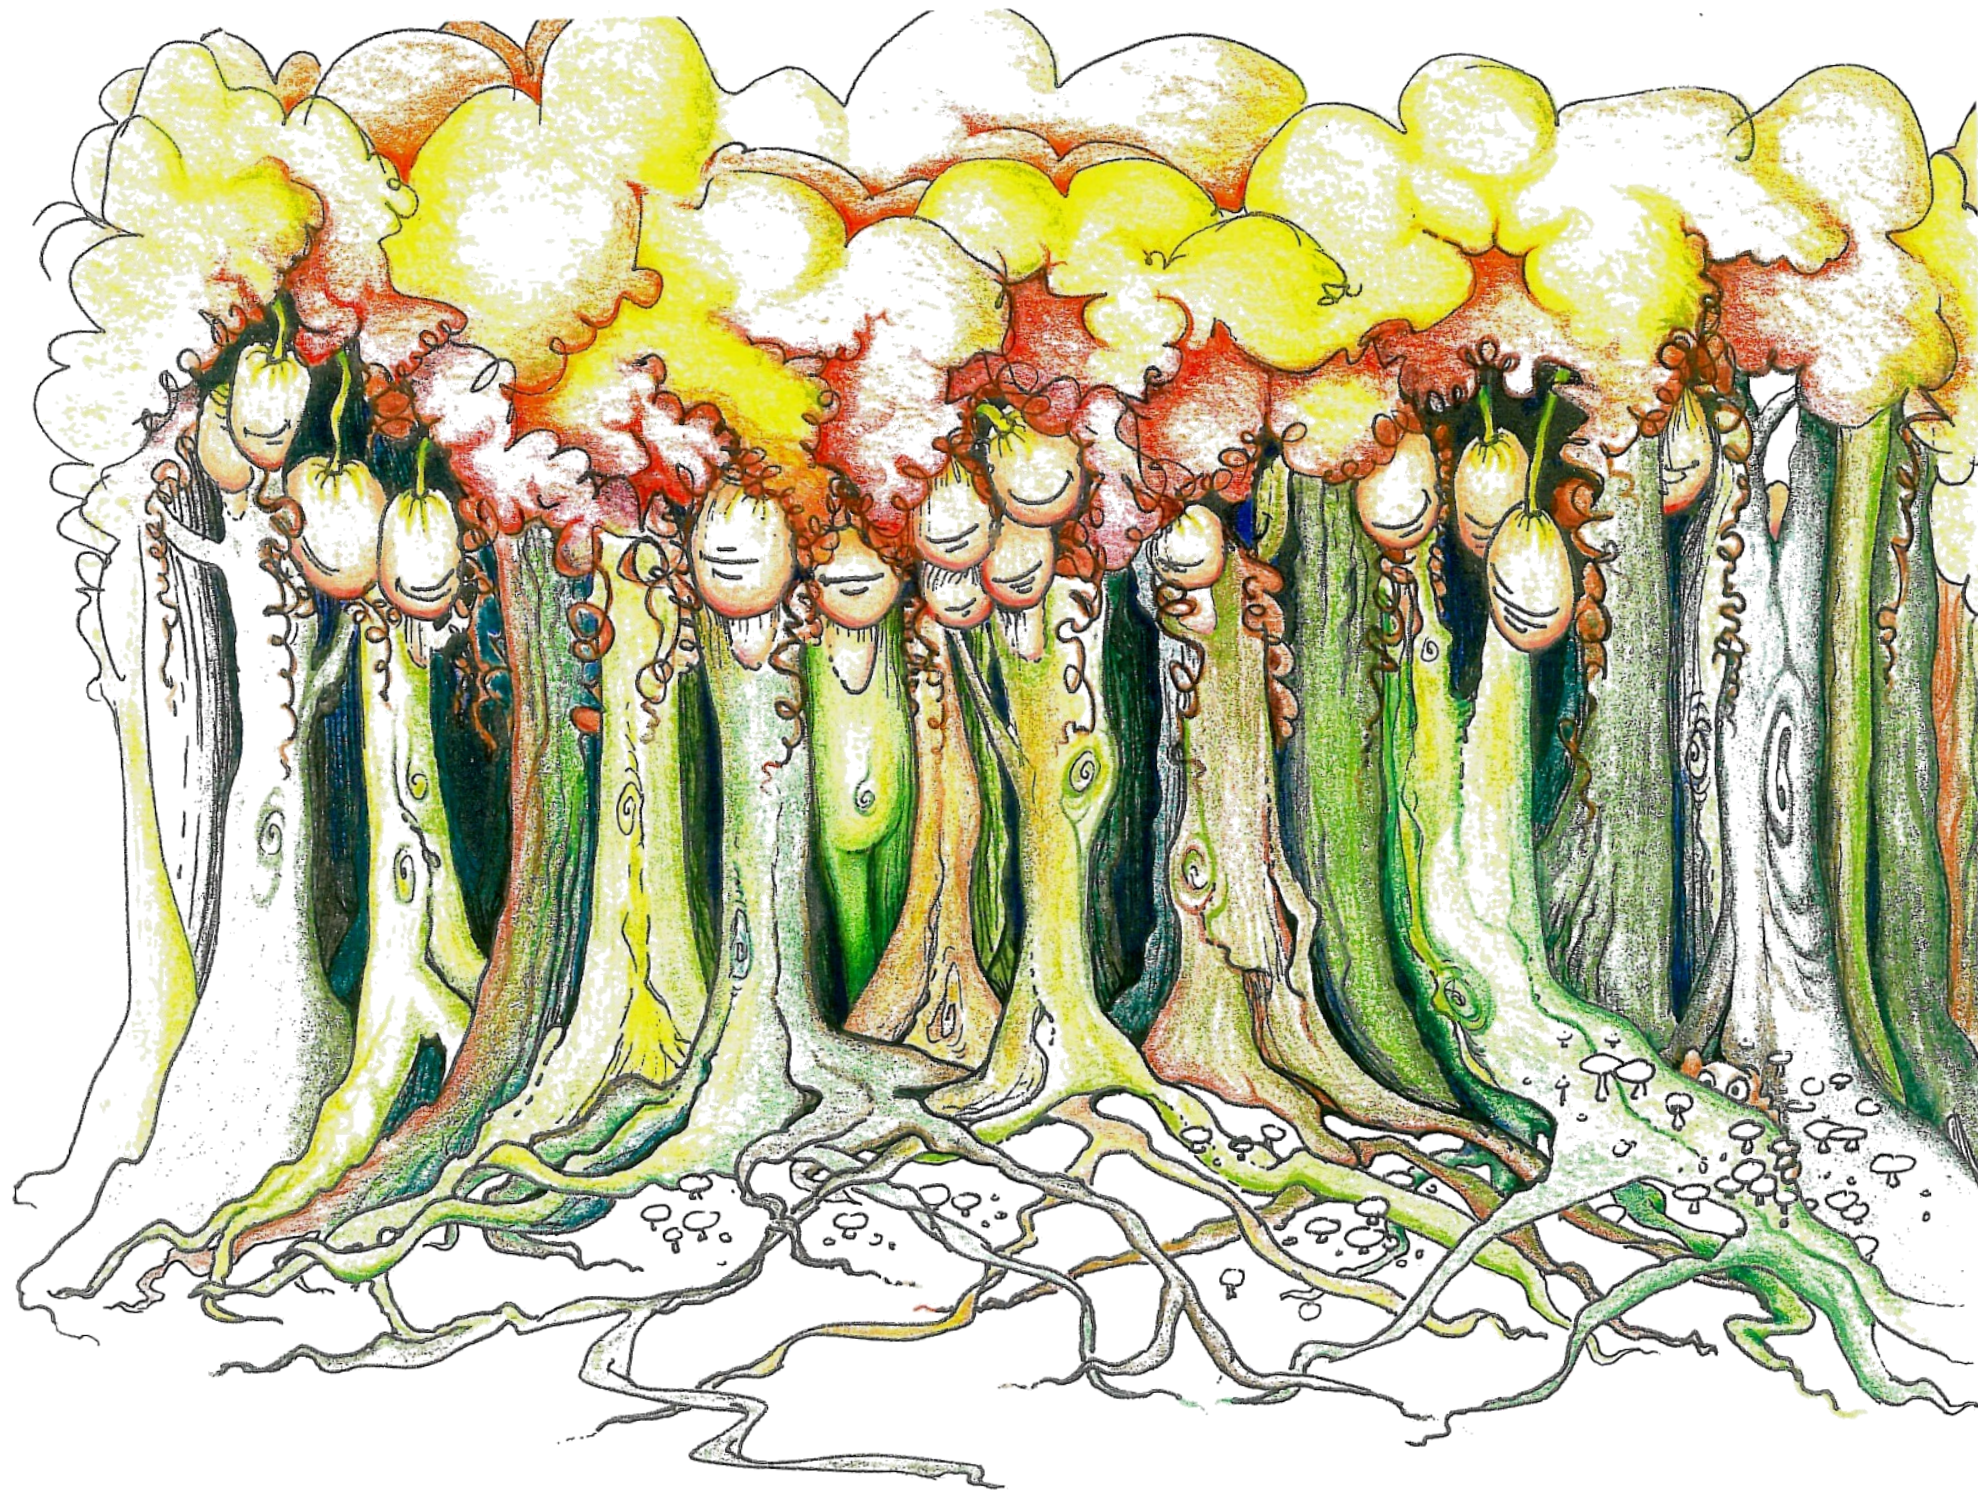

12.

Alright, I admit it.
You are good at hide and seek, too.

But... you will not find me
this time!

NO FAIR!

NO FAIR!

NO FAIR!

NO FAIR!

I DO NOT WANT TO PLAY ANYMORE!

Uh-oh!

this is what my mom calls my
red hot screamies.

I am supposed to take deep breaths
and count to ten.

Can you help me?

Much better.

Cobalt thanks you.

I thank you.

Want to try and play again?

We will find a spot so good
you will NEVER find us!

See us?

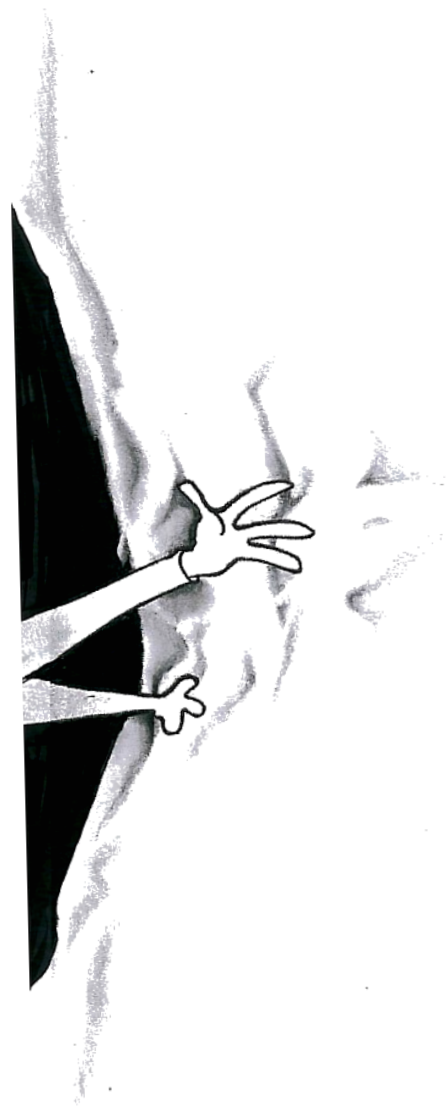

See us now?

Give up?

Here's a hint.

Here's a bigger hint.

We were in here!

Told you we were the best hide-n-seek players ever.

Now, you hide and we seek!

FOUND YOU!

Want to play again?
Start back at the beginning!

See you at the front of the book.

This is the end of the book.

